

AMUSEMENTS.

ARCH STREET THEATRE.—Miss Homer appeared as "Eradne." This play is magnificently written; has a story of deep interest, and above all, has not been hackneyed. The heroine is meant to appeal to all the sympathies of the audience. A woman, noble, gentle, timid, full of tenderness and love, holy and chaste. One of the purest womanly creations of the drama. Miss Homer did not so understand the part. She made "Eradne" a commonplace tragedy queen, a stermagant, ranting to the top of her vent, until all individuality was lost and "Eradne" might have just as well have been "Margaret of Burgundy." Mr Rankin played "Colonus" with much dignity, warmth, and passion, and, however, still too much, especially in the second act, and wanting in deliberation. He was dressed with much taste and looked well. Mr. James' talent lies decidedly in tragedy. His "Vincennes" was acted with great judgment. His fine voice was allowed full scope in the flowing sonorous language of the Irish orator and orator. Mr. Gibson having a villain of high degree to play, was in his element and produced good effect. This evening Miss Homer plays "Lone," with Mr. Rankin as "Hoon," and Mr. Mackay as the "Duke."

NEW CHESTNUT STREET THEATRE.—Archduke Poge is as attractive now as though the piece was entirely new. The story is interesting and romantic; the play finely cast; and the effects admirable. What more can the public require?

WALNUT STREET THEATRE.—Mr. Clarke had a crowded house last evening to witness his "Bob Acres." Mr. Clarke's popularity, like his talent, increases at each low engagement.

FOYER ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—Mr. Wolfsohn gave his Beethoven matinee to an audience that has increased in number, showing that his good work has prospered, and that public taste is being educated to understand Beethoven. Mr. Wolfsohn was especially inspired. The adaptive grace of the sonata in G major was given with delicacy and tenderness that was truly enchanting. The finale of the sonata in B minor was brilliantly played, showing that Mr. Wolfsohn has all the artistic qualifications to interpret this great master. M'mo Ritter was unfortunately taken ill and unable to leave New York, but Mr. Wolfsohn promises us this lady in the future, as well as Mr. Thomas. There scarcely needs this attraction to Wolfsohn's entertainments, but the audience will be sure to appreciate the favor of this addition to the programme.

PELLI'S OPERA.—This evening the season of amateur opera will be inaugurated by the first performance in this country of Charissia, by Pelli. Miss Hewitt has much improved, her fine voice has acquired solidity and power. Mr. Durand is a thorough artist. Mr. Mathias has tamed his stupendous voice. Mr. Schmitz has given power to his sweet tenor voice. The ensemble, aided by band, orchestra, and chorus, will be magnificent. The audience will be composed of the elite of the city, in full opera costume.

THE STAGE.—This is the title of a neatly printed, small octavo sheet, published by John W. Forney, Jr., and devoted to the interests of the places of amusement of Philadelphia. It is well filled with advertisements, and will no doubt prove a profitable venture in the field of newspapers.

AN INTERESTING LECTURE.—The lecture by Rev. William Butler, D. D., late Missionary to India, on personal reminiscences of the Sepoy Rebellion, at the Spring Garden Street M. Church, last evening, was listened to by a large and intensely interested audience. India, with her two hundred millions of human beings, covers one and a half million of square miles, an extent of territory equal to all Europe excepting Russia and Scandinavia. She comprises a congregation of nations speaking some fifteen different languages, and until 1858 was never subject to any one government, but each naturally having its own distinct sovereign, all independent of each other.

The missionary field of the M. E. Church occupies a territory in Upper India four hundred miles in length, and over one hundred miles in breadth, with a population of fourteen millions. The cause of the rebellion was stated to be an attempt of the Great Mogul to restore Mahomedan supremacy, and completely and effectually destroy Christianity in India. At the time the British army in India numbered only 27,000 men. Scattered over a vast extent of country, while the native armies, of whom only the officers were English, comprised over 200,000 men. The roads through the country were described as being the most wretched and dangerous, rendering communication between the different military posts arduous and almost impracticable, enabling the Sepoys to massacre the whites, and destroy their homes and settlements in quick succession, without, for a long time, coming to any considerable number of British soldiers.

NICHOL TRAPPED.—A colored boy named Jacob Jones, aged 16 years, was arrested yesterday upon the charge of having entered the dwelling of Mr. Justice Strawbridge, of the Thirteenth Ward, with intent to rob. Mr. Strawbridge, upon coming into his house, saw two colored boys in the alley, and drove them away. Upon entering the yard he found the back window open, and suspecting that all was not right, sent the servant girl up stairs to see if anything had been removed. The girl, upon going into the second story, saw one of the colored boys open, and turned the key, which had been left in the lock. She came down, when Mr. Strawbridge himself came up, and hearing a noise in the closet which the girl had locked, opened the door, and there found Jones, who had hidden there, and been locked in by the servants. The youthful offender was taken into custody, and handed over to a police officer, and finally committed for trial by Alderman Massey.

RESURRECTIONISTS ABOUT.—A few nights since an attempt was made to remove a body from the Franklin Cemetery, in the Twenty-third Ward. The body was that of a man who had been drowned, and had been returned that afternoon. The attention of Mr. Flood, the sexton, who lives in the place, was attracted by the barking of his dog. He went towards the place, where three men made a hasty retreat. They had succeeded in removing about one-half the dirt from the grave.

AWAITING AN OWNER.—Last night one of the Nineteenth Ward police officers found a lot of buckets which had been stolen and dropped by the thief. They are awaiting an owner at the Station House.

EASTWICK PARK.—The carnival work on this fine skating park has been fully inaugurated. Last evening crowds of ladies and gentlemen enjoyed the healthful exercise of the season. This is the largest park in the country, and the management have spared no pains to render their guests comfortable and in every way to minister to their enjoyment. Mr. James Moore is always on hand to superintend the evening caravals, and will officiate as Master of Ceremonies. It is easily accessible by the Broad and Pine Street Passenger Railroad, and it is worth the while of our citizens to embrace the present opportunity.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT.—John Gorman was arrested yesterday, charged with the larceny of a coat from one of the workmen at the Reading Railroad depot. The accused was arrested while walking off with the coat on his back. He was committed by Alderman Clouds.

GREAT FIRE IN DELAWARE AVENUE.

A Block of Warehouses Destroyed. Shortly after 12 o'clock last night a fire broke out on Delaware avenue, below Vine street, and the flames, before checked, wrought great destruction to property. The fire was confined to a block of six buildings standing by themselves on Delaware avenue, and extending back to Water street. They had a front of five stories on the avenue and four on Water street, and were old and substantially built structures. The flames first made their appearance in the commission house of William B. Johns & Co., No. 237. The fire originated among a lot of machinery in second story, and spread with remarkable rapidity, the whole building being enveloped almost before the few companies that arrived could get into service.

Another unfortunate fact was, that on reaching Third and Arch streets, a number of companies were informed that the fire was out Market street, and believing the information to be true, they turned their course in an opposite direction. Before they had proceeded many squares, the dense smoke, followed by an illuminated sky, led them to the scene of the conflagration. The steamer of the Spring Garden Engine Company was considerably injured by being run over by the flames at the foot of Vine street.

The flames extended both north and south with great rapidity. Adjoining Messrs. Johns & Co., on the south, was the warehouse of Budd & Comly, commission merchants. The upper portion of this building was completely burned out, and the lower portion deluged with water, playing havoc with the large stock of grain and flour on hand.

No. 234, to the south of this again, was occupied by John C. Davis, rag merchant, and shared a similar fate. The flames, reaching this building, burned the greatest sturbonness, and baffled the combined exertions of the firemen to stop the progress of the fire. The burning in this building caused a dense and suffocating smoke, which considerably interfered with the operations of the firemen.

The damage to the north of Messrs. Johns & Co.'s, the building in which the fire originated, was not so great. Adjoining on the north was a building occupied by Tomlinson & Hill, commission merchants, and like the other buildings extended through to Water street. The upper portion of the building was occupied by J. Shindler & Sons, salunkers. The building was completely gutted and flooded with water, and the loss will be heavy.

No. 241 is occupied by Brown & James, commission merchants, and shared a fate similar to the other buildings. No. 243 is occupied by J. W. Porter & Co., flour and grain merchants, and Nos. 245 and 247 occupied by Thos. B. Lancaster & Co., commission merchants. The latter establishment suffered badly from water. The fronts of all the buildings on Delaware avenue are fire proof, although some of them have been subjected to such an intense heat as to render necessary their removal.

During the progress of the fire a number of firemen received serious injuries from falls, etc. Unfortunately a number of the backways in the different warehouses had been left open, and several firemen were precipitated through. W. A. Spiskey, a member of the Vigilant Fire Company, fell through the backway at Messrs. Johns & Co.'s place, and broke both legs. He was conveyed to the Hospital.

All latches took open during the progress of a fire subject the occupants of the premises to a heavy loss, which goes to the Association for the Relief of Disabled Firemen.

The fire burned with the greatest sturbonness, and reminded one of the terrible conflagration which occurred in this immediate neighborhood in the summer of 1850. The fire at that time was attended with fearful consequences. Several explosions, supposed to be self-ignited, took place. A number of lives were lost at the time, and the affair caused a gloom over our city equal to that which followed the great coal oil conflagration at Ninth and Washington streets in the early part of last year.

AN ACROSTIC.

"Tell me," a stranger youth once cried, "Oh, tell me, ye who 'know the ropes,' Where handsome clothing they provide, Equal in cheapness to my hopes? Round I have rambled, far and wide." "Hast thou not marked that lofty pile, Alike in fame and stature tall? Low prices joined with handsome styles, Luckily dwell at Tower Hall!"

We do not profess, for any real or imaginary cause, to sell below cost, but we sell rapidly our stock of goods, fashions, and notions of clothing, at prices guaranteed to be lower than those of any other house in this city. We have the largest and best assortment of Men's, Youths', and Boys' Clothing in Philadelphia.

ELECTRICAL DISCOVERIES AND GLORIOUS RESULTS.

DR. M. J. GALLOWAY, Electrical Physician, formerly the partner of PROFESSOR C. H. BOLLES, after an absence of a year and a half from the city, during which time he has been engaged with PROFESSOR BOLLES, his father-in-law, in investigating more fully the sublime subject of Electricity as the GREAT CURATIVE AGENT, has resumed his successful practice at No. 142 South EIGHTH Street, where he is curing, with unparalleled success the worst forms of acute and chronic diseases in our many scientific experiments with the electric Galvanic, Electro-Magnetic, and pure Magnetic Currents, and their numerous modifications on the bodies of various animals for the purpose of ascertaining with minute accuracy the direct and indirect influence of each on the organization we have demonstrated that Electricity is the vital element—that it can be directed to any organ or part of the body, and even after the vital functions seem paralyzed, possess the power of arousing the dormant energies, equalizing the circulation, and restoring the system to a self-sustaining healthy condition.

The most satisfactory results follow our treatment. In some instances the disease of years' standing yields readily at the first touch of the electric element, while in others it requires a more prolonged treatment. One very important feature of our treatment is that no time is lost in experimenting with disease. By means of an electrical test, an accurate diagnosis is given at once, determining the locality and character of the disease, and indicating the method to be pursued.

DR. P. SHEDD, OF NEW YORK CITY, a scientific gentleman in the public press of this city during the practice. Dr. Shedd was a student of Professor C. H. Bolles, with many other eminent medical men in the city of Rochester, N. Y., about ten years ago, and after that a partner in the city of Buffalo, and since that time has given his whole attention to the curing of diseases by Electricity in its various forms and modifications, in accordance with the great and sublime doctrines of Professor Bolles, who has brought his discovery into public favor in all the principal cities of America, among medical men and Electricians. The skill and experience, therefore, of Dr. M. J. Galloway and P. Shedd, M. D., commend them to the confidence of the public and afflicted.
